1 Thess. 4:16-17, “For the LORD Himself will come down from heaven, with a loud command, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet call of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first. After that, we who are still alive and are left will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the LORD in the air. And so we will be with the LORD forever.” (NIV)

Oh what a day that will be! I’m so looking forward to that day. I know it is coming soon. It might be this very day! Are you ready to meet the King? He has foretold this for a reason. He wants us to be ready. He wants us to be looking up!

Someday soon, my earthly eyes will become spiritual eyes. I will see the LORD of all in His glory! I will see my Savior and be able to worship and praise Him with millions. I will see all the glories of Heaven and the place that He has prepared for me. I will get to see my child that I’ve never met since it died in my wife’s womb. I will see my loved ones that have gone on before me. But the best part of being in my LORD’s presence is the death of ‘self.’ All of the “I’s” that were just used will not matter anymore. It won’t be about us; it will be about Him.

He will finally get the praise that He so rightfully deserves. He is the One Who has done it all. He created. He maintains. He loves. He cares. He watches over us. He holds all things together. He deserves unending worship. And, He will get this. When we’ve been there for an eternity, it will just be the beginning of our praise and worship of Him.

Let’s not wait until that day to honor and worship the KING of Kings and LORD of Lords. Let our lips tell of the One Who has given everything for us! He is coming! He is coming! Hallelujah! Christ Jesus is on His way!!!

Dear Father, even so LORD, come. In Jesus Name, Amen
