Ps. 55:16, “As for me, I call to God, and the LORD saves me. Evening, morning and noon I cry out in distress, and He hears my voice.”

What a beautiful picture David draws here. No matter what time of the day or night, you can always call upon the LORD, for He is ever listening to His children. He will not only hear your prayers, He will surely answer them. Picture that one of your children was in need and they cried out to you. You would certainly come to them and help them.

Jesus was speaking to the multitude and in Mt. 6:31-34, “He gives this admonition: So do not worry, saying, ‘What shall we eat?’ or ‘What shall we drink?’ or ‘What shall we wear?’ For the pagans run after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them. But seek first His kingdom and His righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well. Therefore, do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own.”

There is always a connection available to the Father. All we need to do is come to Him, call out to Him, and He will hear, and He will answer. Rom. 10:13, “For everyone who calls on the name of the LORD will be saved.” He is such a loving and amazing Father. He is good all the time.

Dear LORD, thank You that we can come to You anytime, any where, with anything. You are never too busy for us and You will always listen to us. We love You LORD, In Jesus Name, Amen
