Joel 2:28-29; 32 “And afterward, I will pour out my Spirit on all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your old men will dream dreams, your young men will see visions. Even on my servants, both men and women, I will pour out my Spirit in those days. And everyone who calls on the name of the LORD will be saved;” (NIV)

We are certainly living in the end times. The LORD has poured out His Spirit so that all can come to Him and believe. The gospel is not veiled. It is pure and clean and open to anyone who will come to Him. I see more and more people, especially young people, who have trusted in the LORD and will now boldly proclaim the good news. Yes, there are some who seem to get the attention of the news media, who are following their own selfish desires. But I believe that there are many more young people who are willing to stand up for the cause of Christ.

This is the time for all of us as believers, to be spreading the gospel to all who will listen. We cannot be silent. We cannot withhold the most important message that anyone could ever hear. Today is the day of salvation and JESUS is the way of salvation. Acts 4:11-13 Jesus is “the stone you builders rejected, which has become the cornerstone.’ Salvation is found in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to mankind by which we must be saved.” When they saw the courage of Peter and John and realized that they were unschooled, ordinary men, they were astonished and they took note that these men had been with Jesus. (NIV)

Dear LORD, this is the day that we ought to proclaim the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living! Empower us to lift up the name of Jesus. Help us proclaim salvation to all who will believe! In Jesus Name, Amen
