

August 28, 2022

The Lord wants you to experience real and abundant life:

Ps. 31:19 How abundant are the good things that You have stored up for those who fear You, that You bestow in the sight of all, on those who take refuge in You. (NIV)

David begins this Psalm of praise calling upon the LORD and proclaiming that He is our refuge, our fortress, our rock and our LORD. He continues to lift up the name of the LORD and His provision. This is an important understanding for all who are in Christ. He has provided everything that we will ever need. There is nothing left to ask for when we are walking in Him. In essence, living in the abundance of the LORD is realizing that He has everything that we will ever need, and we need not look to anyone or anything else to fulfill us.

Now this also pictures the fact that He is storing up these blessing and provisions for us in the place He has prepared for us. We cannot even imagine the magnitude of the good things He has for us. Not a moment will go by in His presence that He is not pouring out His goodness upon His children.

His loving is never-ending, and His mercies are new every morning. I think we do not bask enough in this fact. We seem to look to the temporal things of this world, expecting that they will bring us some type of satisfaction. But they will not. Only the blessings of God are eternal. They truly keep giving and giving with no end.

Dear LORD, thank You for Your provisions for us. They are without measure. You just keep giving and giving with no end. We are truly blessed. In Jesus Name, Amen