

March 11, 2022

The Lord wants you to experience real and abundant life:

Ps. 16:11 You make known to me the path of life; You will fill me with joy in Your presence, with eternal pleasures at Your right hand. (NIV)

David makes an interesting assessment here when he mentions the path of life. He is looking forward to the only One Who can give real life. For centuries, the Hebrew people had been looking for the Messiah to come. Even at this point, David knew that the LORD would keep His covenant with His children. The word path here depicts the way that is right. We know that Jesus is the way. No one comes to the Father, but by Him. Mankind has been looking for this way since the fall of Adam and Eve. The good news is that this path is Jesus Himself.

This path leads to the throne room of God. It leads us through all difficulties, hardships and struggles. It leads us into the very presence of the One Who loves you more than anyone else ever could. It is the path of real and true life. It is Jesus Himself. His word is a lamp unto our feet and a light unto our path.

And, when we choose to walk along this path, we are accompanied by the Holy Spirit, Who lights our way and shows us the love of the Father. This, as David says, fills us with joy in His presence. It lifts us up. It gives us a hope and a future. It transforms us from a dull, meaningless existence into a life that is full of the glory of the Father. And it gives us the hope of eternal pleasures at His right hand. The right hand is the action hand of the Father and He will act. He will give. He will move. He will bless. Oh, praise You Father and Son and Holy Spirit.

Dear LORD, thank You that You show us the way when we were lost. You have filled us with Your unspeakable joy. You have invited us into Your presence to live and to love with Your love. Hallelujah and praise You forever and ever! In Jesus Name, Amen