The Lord wants you to live in His liberty and freedom.

1 Chon. 29:11 Yours, LORD, is the greatness and the power and the glory and the majesty and the splendor, for everything in heaven and earth is yours. Yours, LORD, is the kingdom; You are exalted as head over all. (NIV)

To live in the freedom that the LORD has for us, we must realize the awesomeness of God Himself. We do not serve an absentee God. We do not wonder if He is real or if He loves us. His word and actions are more than enough proof that He does. This should cause us great joy and praise to the One Who holds all things in His hands. We have a hard enough time just trying to keep our lives together, not to mention the whole universe. Greatness and power and glory and majesty and splendor are not big enough words to describe our incredible God. He holds all things together. If it were not for His watch-care over all things, they would not exist. They would certainly fall to pieces and come undone. And He does not sit back and not be involved in the world. He is actively at work all the time. We think we have a long 'to do' list, but just imagine His. And it never stops.

Now the key here is the ability to perceive what He has and is doing, and then to praise Him because of this. He deserves every bit of praise that we could bring Him. He deserves our fealty and faithfulness. He deserves our devotion to Him and His purposes. Can you join with this praise found in today's scripture and tell Him how wonderful He truly is? After all, the LORD inhabits the praises of His people.

Dear LORD, we worship You alone. You are the greatness and the power and the glory and the majesty and the splendor LORD. You are great and greatly to be praised. Let not a moment go by that we don't remember Who You are and what You've done. In Jesus Name, Amen
