

November 2, 2023

The Lord wants you to live in His liberty and freedom.

1 Cor. 8:6 Yet for us there is but one God, the Father, from Whom all things came and for Whom we live; and there is but one LORD, Jesus Christ, through Whom all things came and through Whom we live. (NIV)

Since God is the creator of all things, He is also Master over all things. His love compels Him to reach out to His creation with kindness and mercy, which He has done. Because of His great love, He demonstrated it by allowing Jesus to become our redeemer by offering Himself up as a sacrifice for our sins.

He is the only true God. He has given us everything that we need to know and understand Him and receive His grace and mercy. Not only do we receive eternal life through His death, burial and resurrection, we also receive His Spirit which allows us to live in Him. This is our spiritual and eternal connection to the Father. It reminds me somewhat of our spiritual wi-fi that will never have an interruption of service. We stay connected to Him continuously. He is always available. He is ready to help in any and all situations. He gives wisdom when we will seek His face. He brings rest to the weary soul. He leads us in paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

There is no God, but our God. He rules and reigns over all because He created all. No matter how bleak the situations we face may seem, He is able to do more than we could ever think or imagine. We have a choice to live through Him or go it on our own. Let's be wise and discerning.

Dear LORD, You are the one and only God. We choose to submit ourselves to You and Your will today. Lead us in Your path. In Jesus Name, Amen