Because God loves you, He Provides- Part 136

Did you know that God loves you more than anyone else could ever love you?

God proves His love to you by His binding love. Col. 3:14 “Above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds us all together in perfect harmony.”

The Greek word for binds is sundesmos which means to hold together, to cement into place and to keep securely. God’s love is the glue that keeps us together. When you think of the body, it is held together by the “glue” of ligaments, tendons, cell walls, and molecules. They all work together to keep our body in working order. In the body of Christ, it is the love of God that will bind us all together. And when we are in unity of spirit, thought and action, then nothing becomes too difficult for us. Paul calls this perfect harmony.

I am amazed to hear some groups that sing four part harmony in acapella. These notes blend together so well that it is almost as if one person was singing. In the same way the love of God holds us together in perfect harmony so that the world around us can hear the beautiful sounds of God’s grace and salvation. We are all part of the body of Christ if we have trusted Him as our Lord and Savior. And when we do, we become a part of the holy chorus of God’s love proclaimed to a lost and dying world. Let’s join together in perfect harmony of actions, deeds, and love. Let’s show the world what true love is all about. And let’s do this for the sake of the One Who has loved us the most! Jesus, our Lord and Savior!

Dear Father, thank You for binding us together so that we can be used for Your kingdom’s glory. Help us to walk in unity with Your Spirit and with each other. In Jesus Name, Amen
