The Lord wants you to live in His light.

Ps. 119:65 Do good to your servant according to Your Word, LORD. (NIV)

When I think of how good the LORD has been to me, I'm overwhelmed with emotion and gratitude. Everything the LORD does for us is in line with His precious promises in His Word. His blessings are new every morning. He is faithful and true. He is the rock we can build on. He provides everything we need. He will never leave us or forsake us. He is our wisdom. He is our salvation. He is our healing. He is our power. He is our protection. He is our comfort. He is our all in all. All that He does is with His bountiful hand.

Not only is He good, He is bound by Who He is. He will not change and because of that, we can be assured that Who He is and what He does will always be motivated by His great love for us. Take a moment today to meditate on the promises of His Word and how He has blessed you and come through for you in times of trouble. I can tell you that in my life, He has blessed me more than I could ever think or imagine. I don't deserve these blessings and they are not given because of my goodness. They are based totally on the person of God Himself.

Take a while today and just praise Him. Love on Him. Tell Him how wonderful He is. He is so very deserving of all our praise!

Dear Father, You are so good to us. You have blessed us beyond measure and You will continue to do so. Thank You for Your Word that continually exhorts us and encourages us to follow You. In Jesus Name, Amen
