The Lord wants you to live in His light.

Rev. 21:4 He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away.

As a believer in Jesus Christ, we have a hope and a future that those without Him do not. There is not a more beautiful statement in scripture to me. Our loving Father will wipe away our tears for good. There is a wonderful comfort to me when I think of my LORD wiping away my tears. He is a loving Father, Who cares for me more than anyone else ever could.

The “old order of things has passed away.” This means a new life. This will be a life with no dread of death. There will be no sorrow because there will be nothing to make us sorrowful. My body will be made perfect with no aches or pains. I can't even imagine that! After years of football and other active sports, my joints are letting me know they are there.

So meditate on this thought today: no sickness, no disease, no hurting, no sorrow, no pain, no arguments, no lying, no deception, no temptations, no death, no time restraints or deadlines, no pressure, no attacks, no politics, and no separation from our Father, forever! Instead, we will enjoy the presence of the LORD and worship Him with all of creation. We will enjoy His goodness and mercy. We will see Him like He really is. We will bow before Him and serve Him forever! Oh what a day that will truly be!

Dear LORD, we look forward to this day. All of creation will bow before You and give You the praise that You truly deserve. You are Holy, Holy, Holy. You are worthy of our worship and praise. In Jesus Name, Amen.
