

May 19, 2024

The Lord wants you to live in His light.

Ps. 95:3-4 For the LORD is the great God, the great King above all gods. In His hand are the depths of the earth, and the mountain peaks belong to Him.

I am fortunate to live in Northwest Colorado where I see mountains every day. They are beautiful and majestic. And when I travel through this state, I am in awe of the marvelous scenery and wildlife that abounds. In today's scripture, I am drawn to the fact that not only do the mountain peaks belong to our LORD, but so do the depths. From the deepest ocean bottom, to the core of the earth, to the heights of Everest; they all belong to our great God. (A trivia question: What mountain is the tallest in the world? Monte Pico, which is 20,000 feet from the ocean floor to 7,711 feet above sea level.)

All of these wonders of the world just remind me that our God is so amazing. He spoke and the universe came into being. Did that sink in? He didn't build, but just spoke and it was. And, that was not even difficult for Him. Some day we will finally start to comprehend how great He really is. Just imagine what Heaven will be like. Our world is fallen compared to His wonderful home that He is preparing for us.

Spend some time today thinking about all the wonders of our God and how amazing He is. It will cause you to rejoice as the Psalmist did. For the LORD is the great God, the great King above all gods. In His hand are the depths of the earth, and the mountain peaks belong to Him.

Dear LORD, You are awesome in every way. You are beyond our comprehension. You are too wonderful for mere words. How can we describe such an amazing God. Hallelujah! In Jesus Name, Amen.