The Lord wants you to live in His light.

Jer. 32:17 “Ah, Sovereign LORD, You have made the heavens and the earth by Your great power and outstretched arm. Nothing is too hard for You.” (NIV)

This passage is the beginning of a prayer from Jeremiah. He begins his prayer with praise and adoration to the KING of Kings and the LORD of Lords. He is the LORD over all. All of creation bows in submission to Him.

I can't even comprehend the incredible power that simply speaks and there was: light, the universe, all of creation. The beautiful feathers of the parrot; the colors on the butterfly; the piercing eyes of the tiger; the purr of a little kitten; the loving eyes of your dog. He created them all by the word of His mouth. This same powerful LORD is the same LORD that loves you with all of His heart. You are His precious child. He has done everything for you.

I love how Jeremiah states this: nothing is too hard for You. Do you ever feel that you are facing an impossible task? There is more than enough power in the loving arms of the LORD. If you will run into His embrace, He will protect you, provide for you and give you rest in your weary soul. There is truly no better place that someone could be. In a world that is fascinated by power, how about this: Let there be, and there was! (mic drop)

Dear LORD, You are awesome God! There is no other. You will always be in complete control. You have created all things and You will always be the LORD God Almighty! We praise You above all. In Jesus Name, Amen
